Ascension of the Lord

The Ascension of Jesus marks the definitive entrance of Jesus' humanity into God's heavenly domain. The Acts of the Apostles tells us it is from here Jesus will come again. Jesus, the head of the Church, has opened the way and precedes us into the Father's glorious kingdom so that we, who through Baptism are members of his Body, may live in the hope of one day being with him for ever.

Jesus Christ, having entered the sanctuary of heaven once and for all, intercedes constantly for us as the mediator who assures us of the permanent outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Through Baptism, we are part of the Body of Christ, and participate in what Jesus as the head of the body has gained for us.

At the Ascension Jesus called upon his disciples to proclaim the Gospel to the world.

As followers of Jesus, we give thanks for all we have been given, we proclaim his Good News to the world and we wait in hope and faith waiting for his return!

Jesus has Gone Back into Heaven

Forty days after Jesus rose from the dead He went with His followers to the top of a mountain, where he told them to wait for the coming of the Holy Spirit, and then he went up through the clouds and returned to God the Father in Heaven.

But Jesus isn't gone forever! He is always us- particularly every time we go to Mass, in Holy Communion.

Today let us celebrate Jesus returning to the Father in Heaven!

Dear God, thank You for sending Jesus, Your only Son, to die for our sin. We know that He has risen from the dead and has returned to heaven. Bless us today as we worship Him with great joy! In Jesus' name, amen.
