THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

To grasp the central importance of the mystery of the Trinity in our faith, let us look at how we pray to the Trinity.

A very common prayer – which, strangely, a lot of Catholics don't know how to say – is the 'doxology' or praise of God: 'Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit'. (Better learn it now; this is how we are to praise God for all eternity in the Kingdom of Heaven.)

Our leading liturgical prayers end with an explicit enunciation of the mystery of the Trinity: 'Through Our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.'

Our most common prayer, which we say so often we may not even notice what it says, is the Sign of the Cross: 'In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit'.

This prayer of words and action is significant in several ways.

The cross of Jesus is the first sign of the Christian, and it is the first sign of the sacrament of Baptism: after the parents and godparents agree to pass on their faith to their child, the sign of the cross is traced on the child's forehead by the minister, the parents and the godparents.

The sign of the cross both testifies that our salvation has been won by Jesus through bearing the cross, and declares that we too bear the same cross.

With this prayer we also claim the name of the Trinity as we pray to the Father, through the Son, in the Spirit. We claim the cross of Jesus as our own, our badge.

We cannot do without the Trinity even if we are unable to fathom its mystery.

Email addresses which have been published in Dominews have been the target of scammers. Be on the alert. Any email message which seems to come from me asking for a favour, like buying something for you, is not from me. Mark it as junk and delete it. If in doubt, look at the sender's address; my address is as published in Dominews. Any other address is that of a scammer. If you have your email address in Dominews, be aware of the risk, and reconsider. Email addresses will not be published by the parish office without giving a warning to the owner of the address.

I am having a few days off, but will be back on 2 June, God willing.

The Holy Trinity

Today is a special day in the church called Trinity Sunday. Do you know what Trinity means? Trinity means three-in-one. God is made up of three persons - the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. That is what we call the Trinity.

As simple as that sounds, the Trinity is hard to understand. The three persons in the Blessed Trinity are all equal but different. We cannot understand this, but we believe it because Jesus taught it. It is a mystery to us - something we can think about and wonder about. People have used many different things to try and help explain what the Trinity is. Take for example, an egg. It has three parts- the shell, the white and the yolk, but together it makes up an egg.

Let's pray:

God, we thank you for being all-powerful and all-knowing and for loving us. We thank you for the things in life that we don't completely understand and for giving us the faith to believe them anyway. In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy spirit, Amen.

Care Group

Thank you to parishioners who have expressed an interest in joining our Care Group.

We will hold an informal meeting in the Parish Hall on Thursday, June 3 following the 12 noon Mass.

All interested parishioners will be very welcome. No need to book, just come along and join us.

A Police Check is required for Care Group members – we can arrange this at the meeting if necessary.

Light refreshments will be available.

Praying the Rosary Together

Please join us at 2pm on Sunday May 30 at the grounds of the Fatima Shrine at the northern end of the Rosary Church. We will pray 5 decades of the Rosary.

The first aid kit is located in the Sacristy

MARRIAGE MATTERS

(www.twainoneflesh.org.uk)

Holy Trinity

(Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40 Romans 8:14-17
Matthew 28:16-20)

The Blessed Trinity is an intimate loving relationship Jesus summarises the commandments: love God and your neighbour. The intimacy of married love has this high calling: wholly love God and love each other, we are one another's closest neighbour. It is said that married love most closely reveals the love relationships in the Trinity: three persons in one God, calls us to be two persons in one flesh.

Today's Readings
Trinity Sunday

Entrance Antiphon

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy Deut 4:32-34, 39-40

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans Romans 8:14-17

Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Matthew 28:16-20

Communion Antiphon

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

Responsorial Psalm

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love.

By his word the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all the stars. He spoke: and they came to be. He commanded; they sprang into being.

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you.
